

Canadian World Friendship Fund

The Canadian World Friendship Fund (CWFF) consists of money raised by all members of Girl Guides of Canada. This money is used for many different worthwhile projects that help Canadian girls and Guiders as well as our sisters in Guiding worldwide!

CWFF money is used to support:

- Disaster relief
- Twinning projects
- Mutual aid projects
- World Centers
- WAGGGS
- International travel
- In/out travel grants
- Western Hemisphere region work

More information about these projects can be found on the Girl Guides of Canada and WAGGGS websites
(www.girlguides.ca and www.wagggsworld.org)

EVERY DAY IS WORLD THINKING DAY!

Are you looking for ways to raise CWFF money with your girls or councils? Below is a small list of ideas for you to try. Of course the possibilities are only limited by your imagination. Let the sky be the limit!

- Collect loose change at meetings in a globe bank.
- Hold a potluck AGM, tea or other get together with admission, by donation, to CWFF.
- Hold a silent, or live auction.
- Charge admission to an International dinner or breakfast.
- Hold a dessert and entertainment night.
- Donate a nickel for every year you have lived.
- Hold a block - a - thon. Girls get pledges to see how many trips around the block they can make. They could skip, walk, run, hop.
- Hold a baking contest and sell the baking after.
- Hold a cake decorating contest and finish with a cake walk.
- Hold a kidnap breakfast where participants have to pay for a ride home.
- With your unit plan and run a district, division or area carnival.
- Hold a garage sale
- Hire your unit out as a clean up crew.
- Hold a hop scotch - a - thon.
- Hold a skip - a - thon.
- International market place
- Hold a fashion show and charge admission.
- Paint store windows at Christmas, Halloween, Easter etc.
